

The Charter for Children

“Entertaining, empowering and uniquely Canadian!”

Canadians Are Talking

Here's what they're saying:

Peter Hogg, Leading Constitutional Scholar,
Toronto Office, Blakes

"I read the first two books in The Charter for Children series last night, and I thought they were excellent. Nicely written, amusing, beautifully presented. I tried them out on my assistant this morning, and she loved them too!"

Professionally Speaking: Reviewed by Joseph Restoule General, Six Nations School

"Each book exists in its own right as a wonderful story to share in a classroom, but as a series, the six books would create an excellent unit in almost any division in elementary classrooms."

Canadian Review of Materials: Reviewed by Suzanne Pierson, a retired teacher-librarian

"Clever, quirky, humorous, informative. It is hard to beat that combination. Then add in the fact that you need this series, and these books go to the top of the 'Must Buy' list."

Danielle M. Downing, Resource Teacher/Librarian, King George Public School

"This one series has touched a school and I truly believe a seed of social justice and leadership has been planted. Thank you for giving us this opportunity to see an incredible side of our students."

About the series

The Charter for Children introduces children to the basic principles of the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms. Each story is set in a different province or territory of the country and each addresses a different right or freedom in the Charter. The series seeks to empower children by providing them with a basic awareness of their rights and by fostering a respect for the fundamental values that Canadians cherish.

This 14 book series was written by Dustin Milligan and illustrated by Meredith Luce, Cory Tibbits and Jasmine Vicente.

A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Lobster

The right to speak, sing, and laugh

Aliya is an avid painter who loves expressing her creativity through art. But when her town of Shediac, New Brunswick is overrun by the Lob-Mob, she must use her talents as a visual artist to challenge the crabby gang that has a rule of silence imposed on everyone in the town. It is up to Aliya to use her talents as a visual artist to challenge the Lob-Mob and restore the town's freedoms.

"I really liked the book! It is funny! Whenever the beavers talk, they always rhyme and the beaver who stole the miracle bagel was always in the pictures."
— Anika Paterson, age 10, Montreal, QC

"I absolutely loved the books and so did the students, and the staff had a great time reading them in the staff room, laughing and adding their own takes on the different Canadian settings." — Elizabeth Fraser, Teacher at C. N. Gunn School

"High in kid-appeal, Milligan's tales are gentle, humorous and riddled with puns."

— Focus, McGill University

“This series is dedicated to the children of Canada.”

—Dustin Milligan
